

How's your progress against the ten recovery indicators?

Indicator	Data Source
	Assessments	Care Plans	Service Info	Service Provider	Service User	Informal Carer
Basic needs are identified and addressed.	Basic needs are routinely considered.	Basic needs are routinely addressed.	No data required.	We identify and address basic needs.	My basic needs are well met by this service.	My needs are considered by the service.
Goals are identified and addressed.	Goals are routinely considered.	Personalised self-set goals are routinely addressed.	No data required.	When we plan care we consider people's self set goals.	My goals are considered when planning my care.	No data required.
Personalised services are provided.	Personal choice is routinely considered.	Considerable variation between care plans.	Personal choice is identified as fundamental.	We ensure people receive a personal unique and tailored service.	I get a service that is tailored to my individual needs and circumstances.	No data required.
Service is strengths based.	Strengths are routinely identified and explored.	Strengths are routinely integrated.	Strengths based approach is promoted.	We consider people's strengths skills and abilities.	My strengths, skills and abilities are considered by this service.	No data required.
Service promotes social inclusion.	Social connectedness is routinely considered.	Mainstream services and community integration are routinely addressed.	Information is provided that promotes social inclusion.	We provide a good range of options to promote social inclusion.	This service helps me to feel connected to my community.	No data required.
Service promotes and acts on service user involvement.	No data required.	No data required.	Information is provided that promotes service user involvement.	Significant changes have taken place as a result of service user involvement.	People who use this service have a say in how things are done.	No data required.
Informal carers are routinely involved.	Informal carers role is routinely considered.	Informal carers are routinely involved.	Information is provided that promotes informal carer involvement.	We fully involve informal carers wherever we can.	If I want it, my informal carer is fully involved.	I am fully involved by the service.
Service encourages advance planning and self management.	Advance plans and self management plans are routinely considered.	Advance plans and self management plans are routinely integrated.	Information is provided that promotes advance planning and self management.	We encourage advance planning and self management.	I'm encouraged to plan for the future including periods of poor mental health.	I'm involved in planning for the future of the person I care for.
Staff are supported and valued.	No data required.	No data required.	Training, supervision and wellbeing policies or initiatives exist.	Staff are supported and valued and opportunities exist to reflect on practice.	The staff here seem satisfied in their work.	The staff here seem satisfied in their work.
Practice is recovery focused.	Promotes hope and optimism.	Responsibilities are routinely shared.	Information is provided that identifies recovery focused practice as fundamental.	We are recovery focused practitioners.	The staff are supportive, positive and approachable.	The service helps me feel hope for the future.

For support or more information about SRI 2, contact SRN at info@scottishrecovery.net or 0141 240 7790
www.sri2.net | www.scottishrecovery.net